ACKORD PERCUSSION TABLE

Detailed Specification

Think of Ackord as your flexible accessory table, suitable for many applications. Its stable, weighted base allows you to place not only drumsticks but also put your laptop and other equipment on it without compromising stability. The rubber feet protect the floor if you happen to slide the stand across it. Ackord is available in two configurations: a thin blue velour mat that gives an elegant impression, or a thicker black mat that is sound-absorbing. Three sides of the percussion table are equipped with a raised edge that keeps accessories securely in place. The height of the edge varies depending on the chosen surface: 4 cm with the thinner blue mat and 2 cm with the thicker sound-absorbing black mat. The height and angle of the tabletop can be adjusted with a stepless adjustment and locked in place with a wing screw. The Ackord percussion table requires no assembly and is ready to use immediately.
